VASUDHAIVA KUTUMBAKAM

The image features a map of Australia filled with various Hindu cultural symbols, including a tree, a temple, and a swan. A central circular logo contains the text 'विश्व हिन्दू परिषद' and 'धर्मो रक्षति रक्षितः'. Below the map is a logo for 'HOTA Forum'.

The services offered by the New South Wales branch of Vishva Hindu Parishad of Australia - NSW include Hindu Dharma Teaching Programme in NSW Public Schools, (SRE) Hindu Youth Australia, VHP Sanskrit School (teaching Sanskrit language -Reading, Writing, Speaking), Hindu Organisations Temples and Associations (HOTA) and Hindu Social Services Foundation.

The world is one large family

The prime aim of Vishva Hindu Parishad of Australia is to promote the principles of Unity in Diversity, social cohesion, multiculturalism, harmony, inclusiveness and pluralism in Australia in partnership with the local Councils, the Australian Federal and all State Governments and to promote peace, progress, prosperity and social and economic benefits of Australian cultural diversity.

VHP Sanskrit School

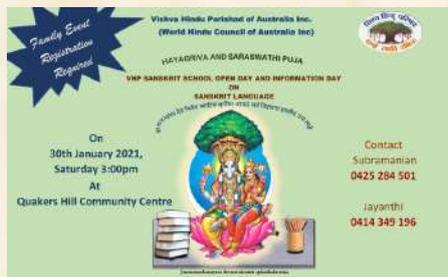

VHP Sanskrit School (SS) is a member of NSW Federation of Community Language Schools. The schools are a part of Department of Education, Community Language and Teaching programme.

VHP SS is a weekly holistic mental, physical and cultural development program for school going children.

Most practical value in fact is that it trains the mind to think logically, brings clarity of expression, develops intellectual strength. The natural flow of Sanskrit is known to improve the voice quality and self-confidence.

VHP SS helps the children to understand and develop a commitment towards living up to the values of life, earn respect in the global community and to be successful.

VHP SANSKRIT SCHOOL OPEN DAY AND INFORMATION DAY

As a mark of the beginning of preparations for the academic year and Calendar year Open day and Information day is organised by VHP Where Curriculum, Syllabus, Scope and Sequence for the year is discussed with the existing and new Volunteer Teachers and the volunteer Teachers introduce the VHP SS branches and the procedure for enrolment to the parents. Following which a spiritual start seeking the blessing of the Bhagawan and from the special deities of knowledge Bhagawan Hayagriva, an avatar of Bhagawan Vishnu, Ma Saraswathi, Guru Bhagawan. This time due to the Pandemic restrictions in most of the venues on 31st January the event took place with limited participants at the venues, Quakers Hill Community Center and the event was also hosted live on VHP Australia NSW Chapter page.
